pairow stock market of last week bore little relation to the course of events in the outside world, except as it was held in restraint by the pros-pect of curtailment by the double pect of curtailment by the double holiday and the possible demands upon the money market of approaching April actilements.

The money position was complicated by the week's sale of $50,000,000 New York City 41-1 per cent, bonds. The results of that sale also filluminated the investment situation in a way not wholly cheering to sentiment. The next impression of the sale was good, owing to the large volume of applications and the considerable foreign demand included. The average subscription price of 101.28 also proved rather better than the preliminary bankers estimates. The new bonds were immediately admitted to the $100 the first of the $100 the $100 unsertiement in standards of value.

On the other side of the labor question, satisfaction was felt over the settlement of the Western railroad are bene dispute. Hopeful views were held also of an adjustment of the coal miners' troubles in the Middle West. The subject retained its disturbing force by reason of other disputes still to be met, and of the renewed attack upon the United States Steel Corporation, by the American Federation of Labor. The cheeful views entertained by the railroad traffic officials of business prospects helped the confidence in labor settlements. Business in from was done at receding quotations.

The problem of winter dayses to the feeling on the matter to one of discouragement.

British could sold down during the week to the lowest price since the depression of 1807, and with that exception, since the first half of the discouragement was a receding cuotations.

The problem of winter damage to the wheat crop remained inactive the wheat crop remained inactive the frictions in the markets through the apprehension of reopening of the question of tariff revision.

DRY GOODS REVIEW

New York, March 27.—The prices on bleached and brown cottons, branded, have been revised 10 per cent. In many instances by jobbers and agents. The sales have been increased and fruit of the loom, which was cut from 10 cents to 9 cents, has now been placed at value showing the recovery from the extreme low level. Retailers are in the middle of their Easter trade, and are naturally disturbed by the decline in piece goods, yet the volume of cuttailment has increased so wheely in the mills that they will shortly be convinced that at the now low prices there is no profit for the mills while cotton looks so high.

Southern coth and varn mills have not followed the policy of the Eastern mills in quietly conserving their flanding interests hy shutting down until prices on merchandse rise to a fair evel of profit based on what the leasured crop of cotton is bringing. Sharie prined goods are selling slowly. There have been several substantial contracts placed with the goods milk on fancy products to be delivered from July forward. Duck continues fittil, with the largest producers hooding prices steady.

Colored cottons, such är working shirt micerials have been revised to least up slocks, but selling agents are not encursping contracts at the new low prices, lased on 7 cents for a good southour chambray. Glinghams cell well and the steple qualities are not in church at such. Jobbert roadmen, who are out with three of blancet, pupped colors, etc. are hooding continued for the prices are not in capital stock. Prices range 250.
